Oak and Johnson Scholarship Program Information and Application

Background

The Oak and Johnson Undergraduate Scholarship program will commence in the fall of 2018 to support underrepresented students, including but not limited to financially challenged students and/or students with diverse cultural experiences. Preferred scholarship recipients include African Americans, females, and/or American Indians. The purpose of the Oak and Johnson Undergraduate Scholarship Program is to encourage and assist students desiring a career in real estate and to promote high educational standards. This program enables commendable students pursuing a career in real estate to experience the Indiana University Center for Real Estate Studies education first hand. Scholarship recipients will come from: Indianapolis Public School District in honor of Joyce Rogers, Jackson Mississippi Public Schools in honor of Congressman Bennie Thompson, and Warrensville Ohio Public Schools in honor of Congresswoman Marcia Fudge.

Scholarship Value

Four to five students, maximum per year at one time, from each of the selected schools shall receive a cash award of $4,000 per academic year so long as they are enrolled, maintain a grade point average of 3.3 or above, and make their best efforts to pursue a career in real estate at Indiana University's Bloomington or Indianapolis campus.
